NOW THAT A NEW SCALE OF BOXING WEIGHTS HAS BEEN ADOPTED-

It Won't Be Long Now Before Boxing Is Governed by an International Set of Weights and

Copyright, 1912, by The Press Publishing Co. SEE that my many suggestions rereights in the various boxing classes have had some effect. The New York Boxing Commissioners have been cor-responding with the French Federation of Boxing Clubs and the National Sport-ing Club of England. As a result these the American body and adopt an inter-from President Rosseau of the French organisation a letter saying that he would like to receive suggestions for rules and weights, so that the ideas of the boxing authorities in different countries can be compared. He added that France and England are anxious to join with us in settling the matter. This means that within a month or two we will have universal rules, and the sport will be stronger all over the world than ever before in its history. Australia is also getting into line and will have a say in the adoption of the rules. The Boxing Commissioners forwarded this weight list to France:

Ringside weighing, suggested by the Boxing Commission, has been very satisfactory since the commission ruled that all boxers must weigh just before entering the ring, in New York bouts. For the first time people know what the fighters really weigh. Ringside weight first time people know what the fighters really weigh. Ringside weight ing has stopped the faking about weight. We no longer have to listen to the sad We no longer have to listen to the sad tales of "welterweights" and "middleweights" who can't get any one to fight them at their alleged weights, the fact of the matter being that they weighed fifteen or twenty pounds over the class limits, and wanted an unfair advantage.

WILLIE HOPPE MAKES BIG AVERAGE IN PRACTICE GAME.

Willie Hoppe, the billiard champion. showed his best form with the cue last night in a practice game with J. Ferdinand Poggenberg at McGraw's Billiard Academy. It took Hoppe only four innings to run off 400 points at the 18.2-inch style. This gave Willie an average of 100.

In the seventeenth round Papke floored Carpentier with a left hand swing flush on the jaw. When the round finished Carpentier went to his corner and informed his seconds that he was through and would not fight any more. The referce then declared Papke the winner, amid much applause. Although Papke won, he does not capture the French middleweight title, as he was overweight, for which he was compelled to pay Carpentier $1,000. Papke drew down $5,000 for his victory.

BAT NELSON TO MEET BALDWIN IN BOSTON

Durable Dane to Swap Blows With Matty in 12-Round Bout Tuesday Night.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

ATTLING NELSON, "the Durable Dane," who still sticks to the fighting game despite the fact that he is nowhere near the wonderful fighter he was several years ago, will be seen in action in a bout at Boston on next Tuesday night. He has been matched to meet Matty Baldwin, the rugged and game lightweight of Charlestown, Mass. game lightweight of Charlestown, Mass., in a twelve-round bout at a show to be held by the Pligrim A. A. of that city. Nelson is getting into condition for the scrap at Nate Lewis's gymnasium in Chicago, where he boxes daily with Harry Forbes and Charley White. Bat tipped the scaels at 139 pounds a few days ago, which is the heaviest he has weighed in several years.
